Winona Holds Banquet

More than 75 alumni, present students, and friends attended the Bryan University alumni banquet held in the Eskimo Inn at Winona Lake, Indiana, August 23, at 6:00 p.m. Alumni now attending Grace Theological Seminary helped to swell the attendance, but a substantial number of out-of-town guests were present also.

Displaying Bryan colors the speakers' table was decorated with scarlet and gold gladioli. Forming a background for the table was a colorful chalk drawing of the proposed Bryan tower with scarlet arrows pointing toward printed signs of the many activities in which Bryan alumni are now engaged. The tables prepared for alumni and friends were made attractive with yellow gladioli.

Seated at the speakers' table were Dr. Judson Rudd, Mrs. Billy Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. Herman Hoyt, Mr. ('51) and Mrs. Archie Keffer, Dr. and Mrs. Alva McClain, and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Miller.

Archie Keffer, a capable toastmaster, kept the program interesting and lively. Dr. Rudd warmly greeted the alumni, and Dr. McClain, president of Grace Seminary, spoke to each heart through his message, "Knowing the Will of God."

The program was greatly enhanced by Dean Risser's vocal solo and a quartet number, "Redeemed," by Messrs. Roy Clark ('51), Charles Taber ('51), Russell Konves ('52), and Dean Risser ('48).

After the banquet, the group met informally while Joel Kettenring ('51) showed colored slides of various scenes on and around Bryan campus.

Denver Area Rally

Mrs. Doris Morgan (Sp), newly elected secretary for the Denver Bryan alumni chapter, reports:

"Thursday evening at 6 o'clock, August 7, 1952 at 1500 E. 10th Avenue, Denver, Colo., we had a Bryan reunion. At this time we had an election of officers for this section...

"We were very thankful to have Beatrice Morgan ('49) take charge and help us get organized. Rev. Lester Farrington ('50) has been elected president and myself as secretary.

"Prof. Glen Atkins, Mrs. Atkins, and David were also here with us and he led us in devotions. His subject was "They hated me without a cause." Edward Greenwood ('51) led us in a song service and refreshments were served."

Alumni members present in addition to those already mentioned were: Gloria Cleer ('46) and Don Vitter ('50), Mary Ellen Thorwald ('50), Virginia Smiley ('50), Morris Morgan ('51). Families of alumni, present students, prospective students, and special friends made up the company of forty who shared the Bryan fellowship.

1952 Alumni Project Completed

Yes, it's true! $1,955.25 has been handled by the alumni treasurer and turned over to the building fund of Bryan University to pay for steel doors in the main and upper floors.

Next time you visit Bryan, knock on any one of those steel doors and be reminded that through the Bryan Alumni Association you have had a part in putting that door in place.

Thanks to you all!
Polly (Parden '48) and Lyman Goehring ('49) and their son, Stephen, visited Bryan on Aug. 2. They are making plans for missionary work in Brazil in the near future under Mid-Missions.

Their motto: "For we preach not ourselves but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake." II Cor. 4:6.

Jane (Sutton '49) and Ed Lieb ('40), Granja, Ceara, Brazil.

"It was May 22 when the truck finally came from Fortaleza with Syers' Elaine (Kennard '47) and Paul ('50) baggage, so nearly a month after they got here they were able to move into their own home. Elaine got hepatitis, and then when she was well, Paul got it, so that really slowed them down on their language classes.

"In July we celebrated John's second birthday. He's 35½ inches tall and weighs 28 pounds. He is talking a good bit now--both English and Portuguese, but he seems to prefer the Portuguese.

"We had two weeks of DVBS...20 enrolled. As a result of this we have three new members in Sunday School, and the older girls are asking to learn to help give flannelgraph stories."

In Africa

Dorothea Nicholson ('51) is stationed at Minna, Nigeria, Africa, under the Sudan Interior Mission.

Agnes (Copeland '36) and John de Rosset ('37), Nd Dale, Fr. Equatorial Africa.

"John and I are so excited we can hardly concentrate on anything lately. We have felt the need—the burden rather—of the Nd Dale District—and especially when we heard there was no one to take over. ... Well, we've received word from the field that we may go. It is a very backward section, not even the Sango trade language is too well known. They use an interpreter for Sunday services. For two or three months during the rainy season the roads are all blocked off. Please pray for us as the Lord lays it upon your hearts."

June (Bell '51) and Ian Hay ('50) Nigeria West Africa, June 27.

"The Lord has truly been blessing us and we are thankful to Him for it. Our language work is coming along slowly but nevertheless surely.

"...June brought a fine boy into the world but the dear Lord took him home to Heaven. From the aching void in our hearts we can but say, 'Thy will be done.' His ways are past finding out. We have given him back to the Lord as a first fruits."

Helen Cow ('48) Congo Belge, Afrique.

"My heart was filled with praise as I thought about the past year: language study with its ups and downs, visiting in the villages, teaching the missionary children's Sunday school class, and teaching in the school. The joy of seeing native souls loose from their bondage of fear when they let the Lord Jesus come into their hearts far outweighed any problems of becoming accustomed to life in another land."

Wilma (Walker '49) and Bruce Rosenau ('47), Mediapolis, Iowa.

"Here we are after four years back in U.S.A. and happy to be here. The Lord went before and prepared a very pleasant trip on the plane. We spent two days in France with Bruce's brother, and then made landings at Ireland, Newfoundland, and Boston before we made our final landing at New York. It was a thrill to be back home, and we enjoyed seeing some of our friends along the way as we traveled to my home here in Iowa. We look forward to seeing the rest of you during the next few months."

Language study in Brussels, Belgium, is being intensified for Iola Baker (Sp.) as she begins the colonial course in French which is required of all missionaries going to the Belgian Congo. Iola is serving with the Berean Mission.
